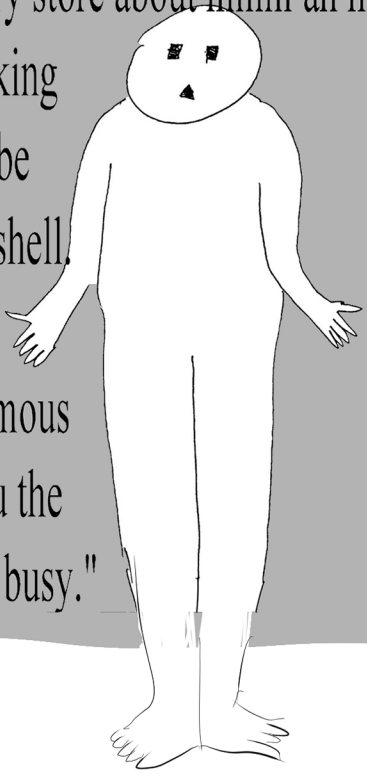
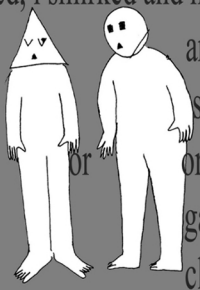
"Oh hello there. Hows it going? You're looking for who? Anyone and Someone huh. Well that does sound kind of familiar. Let me think, let me think. Yeah i think i remember them. Anyone's got a big head right. Someones got the uh kinda weird looking hands. Yeah they were at the grocery store about mmm an hour ago or so. They were looking at the spiral pasta or maybe it was the white cheddar shell. I was there for some potatoes for my world famous potatoh soup. I'd give you the recipe, but you look a bit busy."



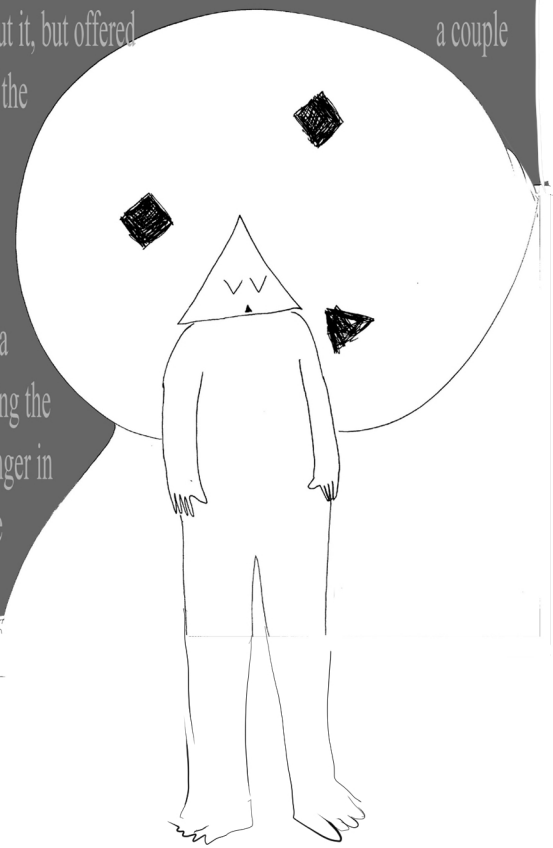
"But anyway, yeah they were looking at pasta, at least Anyone was. It was on discount, but not that much. They mark it up and say that its half off. I've heard of a few places that do this. Can you believe that??"

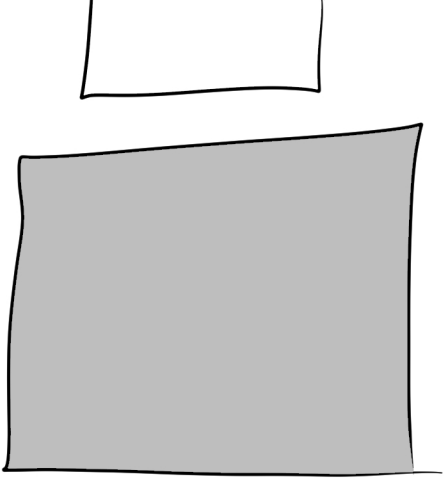
"Unbelievable am i right? I mean the gall these days. Just crazy, but thats besides the point. So they grabbed the pasta and put in their basket, but they didnt want to smoosh the bread, so they moved some stuff around and accidentally dropped some parmesan cheese which unfortunately spilled all over the mildly busy store. An associate was near, but assisting another customer. So they waited for about 5 minutes. I would've helped clean it up, but you know. How do you pick up 1000s of little flakes of cheese. Probably would've just made it worse, so i just stood there, still, picking at the potatos for the best of the bunch. In short u had to go from red potato to sweet potato. Just as i'd sacked em, the associate came by with a broom and no dust-pan. They shrugged and Anyone laughed, i smirked and moved on to the pickles. This time the associate arrived with a new employee. Pretty sure the nametag said Someone.. Or maybe it was Sumone or or Somewon. They were fresh to sweeping, but gave it their all. After a few minutes the finally cleaned up the aged parmesan cheese and i finally decided on the spiciness of the weeks pickles. Mild."



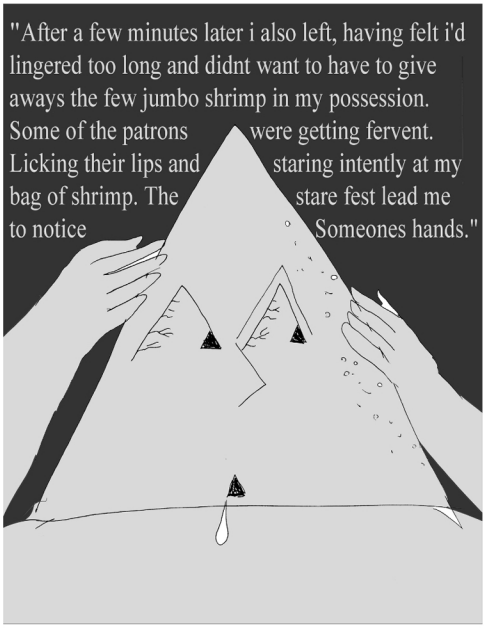
"But that was just the beginning. So after the parmesan incident we all found ourselves at the seafood deli. There was an excellent deal on shrimp. Jumbo savings on shrimp. At least thats what the grocery store would have you believe. I knew better and felt it right, to let them know. Anyone seemed genuinely perturbed and Someone realized they were still at work. You can tell Someone was really really excited for shrimp. We all were. It was a substantial line that just kept growing. Problem was the shrimp was going quick. Anyone and and the rest of us got a bit sweaty about it, but luckily a strange faceless figure in a cloak came out and refilled the shrimp basin."

After a few minutes Anyone and I arrived at the front of the line. Anyone ordered 2 pounds which completely cleared the shrimp . I'd wanted a pound of shrimp and asked Anyone if they'd split it. They didnt look happy about it, but offered a couple handful of the skimpy shrimp offereing. We left in a hurry, seeing the brewing anger in back of the line.

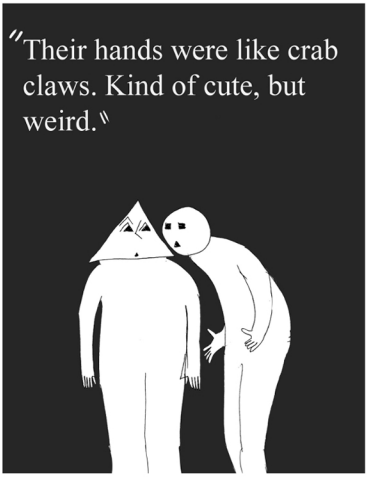




"NOW THIS is where the story gets crazy. The shrimp line erupts into upset staring and caughing, just as Someone is brought to assist the hapless shrimp clerk. Lugging big bags of shrimp, but as i suspected, they ran out of Jumbo shrimp and supplemented with medium pre cooked and cocktail shrimp. A poor substitute, but the line was desperate and Someone wanted to help. At this time uh Anyone left, finding my fixation with the shrimp line a little bit embaressin. Which i get. I suppose i was just bored and a little too curious, but thats just me and hey it pays off sometimes. Can help uh um uh ya know,, The masses. You. Me. Us. It's just who i am. I'm a seeker too. But yeah Anyone left and Someone became overwhelmed."

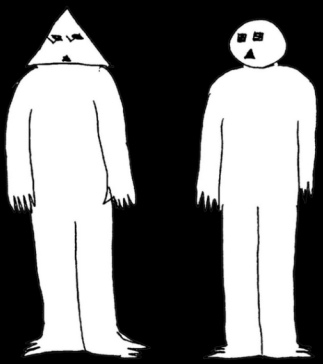


"After a few minutes later i also left, having felt i'd lingered too long and didnt want to have to give aways the few jumbo shrimp in my possession. Some of the patrons were getting fervent. Licking their lips and staring intently at my bag of shrimp. The stare fest lead me to notice Someones hands."



"Their hands were like crab claws. Kind of cute, but weird."

"What were ya asking again?"



"nevermind."

A story even more mysterious than this little alien.

Bonus Things

One started From a need to make Something big From very simple design. An evolution of the MinimalmyStica tradition.

When conceptualizing this idea and Pondering What a Story is, I figured the archetypal structure of a Story Would make For a good Fit to my creative Wants. Next challenge Came From trying to Visualize What Anyone Or Everyone looked like Anything and Something.
